NATIONAL

- The Third Annual National Conference, organized by IL-NU, was held from January 24-25, 2013. The theme of this year's conference was "Vision 2020: Future of law and Legal Transformation" which allowed the presenters to envision the legal industry seven years down the line. Hon'ble Justice Ravi Tripathi, Judge, High Court of Gujarat was the Chief Guest for the session. Prof. Dr. Marian Pinheiro was the key note speaker for the inaugural session. More than 120 delegates attended and participated in the two day conference, which brought together students, academicians and other eminent dignitaries of the legal profession from all around the nation. The conference provided a common platform to discuss and deliberate upon the emerging areas in the legal field and forecasting new trends that might evolve by the year 2020.

Honorable Mr. Justice A. L. Dave, the chief guest of the valedictory session applauded IL-NU for coming with a theme that made young and budding lawyers sit up and think of the issues they would have to face by the end of the decade.

The organizing secretaries of the conference were Dr. K.P. Malik and Dr. Pranav Saraswat.

- Symposium: A Symposium was organized by the Institute of Law, Nirma University on "Global Economic Climate- Focusing on India" February 10, 2013. A symposium was organized on the topic "Global Economic Climate- Focusing on India" by the IL-NU on February 10, 2013. The speakers of the symposium were Prof. Muchkund Dubey President, Council for Social Development and former Ambassador and Indian Foreign Secretary, Prof. P. V. Rao, Director (retd.), Center for Indian Ocean Studies, Osmania University & Prof.V. B. Reddy, Professor of International Law, NALSAR University of Law, Hyderabad, all highly acclaimed experts in the field of International Trade Law. Prof. V. B. Reddy, commenced the symposium with the topic "World Trade Organization (WTO) and India: Issues and Challenges". He traced the history of the establishment of WTO and the importance of the Uruguay rounds of negotiation held in 1994. He then highlighted the position of India in the implementation of its obligations under General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT) and WTO.

Prof. P. V. Rao spoke on "Regionalism & Multilateralism Debate: Indian Perspective" and presented an excellent perspective for both the sides of the debate. He highlighted the importance of RTA and presented his views on the developed countries, particularly the European community, resorting to Non-Tariff Barriers (NTBs) as a backdoor measure to prohibit entry of goods from other countries. Prof. Muchkund Dubey, deliberated on the topic "New Regionalism & India" which is a term first coined by the Professor himself and now used widely in the field of International Trade Law. Prof. Dubey traced the 'first wave of regionalism' to be triggered by the Treaty of Rome, 1954, which he termed as the 'Old Regionalism' to the present times. He concluded by saying that regionalism could sustain only if each country's interest is kept alive in the agreement, otherwise it would fail like it has happened with SAARC. The event was co-ordinated by Ms. Rejitha Nair and Mr. Renjith Thomas.
