Extension Activities at IL-NU

Activities carried out under Legal Aid Clinic :

To provide free legal aid and to create legal awareness, several activities were undertaken during January to March, 2011 under the auspices of Legal Aid Clinic including organizing legal literacy camps in villages, slums and schools. Also a special Legal awareness camp was conducted within the premises of Sabarmati Central Jail.

In this regard Legal literacy camp was organized on 8th February, 2011 at Halisa village, near Chiloda Circle, Gandhinagar. Total 73 students under the supervision of Mr.Rohit Moonka, Faculty Convenor, LAC conveyed the message of such exercise by way of skits, songs, speeches and door- to-door campaign and created awareness on various issues including right to free legal aid, right to information, alternate dispute resolution, basic human rights, family laws etc.

Similarly a legal literacy camp was organized on 17th February, 2011 at Chandramuli School, Vejalpur and another on 24th February, 2011 at A-ONE School, Satellite, Ahmedabad to make the school students aware as it was felt that information with regard to basic provisions of laws is required for school and college students as well which will inculcate a sense of responsibility and empower them to protest any abuse of law by authorities.

It was observed that even in the urban area most of the residents were unaware of their basic rights. To create awareness of Individual rights in one of the slum areas near Naroda, Ahmedabad on 3rd March, 2011, a Legal Aid Clinic was organised by the students of IL-NU.

Total 72 students, along with faculty members, visited Sabarmati Central Jail on 10th March, 2011 and by way of skits, songs, speeches created legal awareness amongst the prisoners on issues such as right to free legal aid, parole, furlough, basic human rights, right to education, fundamental duties.
