2AR659 RSP-IV	L	T	P	C
(2/3 Weeks, Block course) (Minimum 21days X 8 Hrs. = 168 Hrs.)	-	-	-	3

Learning Outcome	• Students will get exposure & awareness of various built environment at different geographical places of architectural relevance across the state, region, country & world. • Students will get the understanding of "synthesis of learning from various courses" by observing, registering & photo documenting of above stated places. • Programme outcome will be extremely valuable in creating knowledge base on architecture field not only in India but of nearby countries as well. • Production of classified images, sketches, notes on first hand experiences. of many a monument, institution, settlement in India, which become a basis for future research.
Content	General Note: The Related Study Programme (RSP) at the Institute of Architecture is a unique contribution to Architectural education. Initially called measure drawings, it is intended to take the students out into the field to get first hand experience of traditional built environments. This subject recognizes the value of the traditional architecture as well as the importance of field experiences and travel in the learning of architecture. The students are encouraged to learn about not only the architectural form also related components of architectural relevance. Content: • Student and faculty members stay at the selected place for 8 to 15 days. • Students will get comprehensive awareness of that place. • Students will sketch, write notes,& photo/video document that place. • Students will also documents the social, cultural, environmental aspects of that place • Students came back at institute and make the final edited document and report within remaining days.