

Private varsity gets A+ grade

Ahmedabad: A private university in the city has secured the 'A+' grade from the National Assessment and Accreditation Council in its third five-year cycle of re-accreditation.

Nirma University, is the only such varsity to receive an A+ grade in the state. This is an upgrade from the previous cycle when it was graded 'A'. NAAC, an autonomous body of the University Grants Commission grades universities on their academic quality, education, research and extension activities. The grade is valid for five years. TNN
