

Advertisement for Recruitment of Junior Research Fellow (JRF) under MIT-45 Inc, USA
Funded Major Research Project

Applications are invited from the eligible candidates for the position of Junior Research Fellow (JRF) for the industry-funded major research project entitled “Evaluation of Kratom, Kava and their combination for their safety profile, withdrawal symptoms and receptor expression studies” at the Department of Pharmacology, Institute of Pharmacy, Nirma University, Ahmedabad.

Principal Investigator:

Dr. Shital Panchal, Associate Professor, Department of Pharmacology, Institute of Pharmacy, Nirma University, Ahmedabad

No. of Post: 01

Duration of Project: 03 months

Fellowship: 30,000/- per month

Eligibility: M. Pharm in Pharmacology with a minimum aggregate of 60%

Desirable:

- Candidates with GATE/GPAT qualification and a strong academic background are preferred.
- Proficient English language in both written and verbal communication.
- Experience of minimum one year on animal experiments and laboratory work will be given priority

Candidates meeting the required qualifications may apply by submitting a soft copy of their application along with their CV, full contact details (including email address), a cover letter expressing interest, self-attested copies of certificates/mark sheets, publications, and evidence of research experience (if any). Please ensure that the email subject is titled “Application for the position of JRF: MIT-45 Project”

Application should reach shital.panchal@nirmauni.ac.in no later than 2:30 pm on 25th March, 2025.

Prof. Dr. Gopal Natesan
Director, Institute of Pharmacy,
Nirma University, Ahmedabad