JOURNAL OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY LAWS (JIPL)

PROLOGUE TO JOURNAL OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY LAWS

The Journal of Intellectual Property Laws (hereinafter 'JIPL') aims to encourage writings on contemporary Intellectual Property Rights issues across different disciplines. It is the endeavor of the Centre for Intellectual Property Rights to become the beacon in the field of Intellectual Property Rights by encouraging the synthesis of knowledge and best practices cutting across academia and research fraternity. The Journal welcomes submissions from academicians, practitioners, research scholars and students from law and allied fields.

To achieve this object JIPL has come up with a distinguished panel forming the Editorial Board to bring in diversity and quality submissions for the issues of JIPL.
