TEACHING LEARNING PROCESS

Institute of Law, Nirma University (ILNU) has adopted the Outcome Based Education Model for the holistic development of its students. Teaching learning process has been edified to ensure that students learn by constructing knowledge rather than by receiving knowledge from others. This constructivist approach requires new techniques for assessing students' learning that includes assessment as an integral part of teaching in order to better understand what students have learnt during the process. The curriculum at the Institute of Law is novel, innovative and meticulously designed to keep students equipped and updated with the skills needed in the profession. A separate enrichment programs, cafeteria courses and professional training module runs parallel with the regular course curriculum right from the first year. This enables the students to develop multi-disciplinary approach to law. Our Faculty members not only keep abreast of the recent developments and research in their respective fields, but also regularly involve students in a research-based learning. This is reflected in the various publications and conferences that our Faculties contribute too.

Further there is an emphasis on teaching students to apply their conceptual knowledge to legal issues and problems. In order to enable the students to gain a better insight into the working of the legal profession the practical work component such as Problem Solving, Mock Trial, Moot Court, Research Writing, Project Work, Case Study, Active Learning, Experiential Learning, Field Visits and innovative mechanisms is used in the teaching learning process. Along with this, students also go through a rigorous internship for four weeks from Semester II to IX in NGO's, Trial Court, High Court, Supreme Court, Law firms etc. Internship experience not only strengthen job placement but also provides an opportunity to the student to apply the legal concepts and practices in real professional front.

For all courses experiential learning mechanism is followed by all faculty which facilitates active learning. Advanced and slow learners are identified for all courses and faculty members use a combination of various delivery mechanisms for mentoring different categories of students. Learning groups are created for each courses and it encourages peer learning and evaluation. Through the formative and summative assessment, we are ensuring that required knowledge and skill for the profession are learnt by the students following the Outcome Base Education principles. So with this OBE approach, clarity is given regarding the subject-matter that students are required to learn, curriculum is organized and finally instructions and assessment is designed to ensure that learning ultimately happens. Assessment rubrics, matrices and feedback helps to map the outcomes of the teaching-learning process.

In overall Institute of Law strive to inculcate in every student a sense of responsibility towards society and respect for human life, besides developing in them the highest standards of professional behavior and personal integrity.

ONLINE VIRTUAL LEARNING

The Institute believe that apart from physical education within the classroom, the virtual classes should also be promoted. With this aim, we conduct virtual online classes upon demand wherein the students can study the lessons through online. Generally, used mediums of these classes were Google classroom, Zoom Cloud, Google meetings and on these mediums teachers shared their audio lectures, video lectures, power point presentations, essential reading materials and other marked documents like case laws and articles as and when necessary as per their lesson plan.

9.3 PW Examination: (IR and RPR)

All assignments in Practical Work will be continuously / periodically assessed (as applicable) during a semester. Oral examination will be included in the assessment at all possible stages. Each assessment will be given marks. The total marks of all Units of PW will be aggregated based on their inter se weights to give the overall percentage of marks in the PW examination. The course coordinator will notify the procedure for assessment, review, viva voce, etc. to the students in advance.

If the student fails in PW examination, the student will not be permitted to appear in SEE of that course and the student will have to seek fresh registration as REP in subsequent semester, if the student fulfils the condition of granting the term (R-LAW (UG)-8)

9.4 Semester End Examination SEE [IR & RPR Registration]:

The expression 'Semester End Examination' refers to the written Examination of a course taken at the end of a Semester. The SEE of a course will cover the entire syllabus of the course.

(RPR registration, grade IF in SEE)

The Institute may decide to hold a Supplementary Examination (SPE) after declaration of the result of SEEs conducted for IR courses at the end of each Semester for the students who have obtained grade IF (O) and/or IF(S) in a course. Such students will have to seek RPR registration to take up SPE.

The student, who could not entirely study a course during the regular semester and repeat the course like fresh students and fail in the SEE in the first attempt, may be given an opportunity to appear in the Supplementary Examination and be treated at par with students registered under IR. It means students registered under RS category also be given a chance to appear in the Supplementary Examination in addition to students under IR.

In addition, opportunity should be given to the students to appear in the Supplementary Examination who cleared all the courses and have earned the requisite number of credits but could not graduated due to failure in SEE (IR/RPR) in one course.

9.6 Schedules of SEE and SPE:

SEEs of all courses of the programme, as per the Teaching Scheme, will be held at the end of each Semester. The supplementary Examinations (SPE) will be held after the SEEs of the respective Semester as decided by the Institute.

9.7 Absence in Examination

Absence in any examination with or without Regular Approval will be treated as absent in the concerned examination and will be assigned grade as per R.LAW (UG)-11.3.

9.8 Student may be allowed to take break of one academic year during the regular study of the Programme for justified reason with the prior approval of the Director General. The Director General will be sole judge to take the final decision.

R.LAW (UG) 10: Grade and Performance Levels:

The overall Performance level of the student in any course will be adjudged in terms of the letter grades, and grade points. Table-1 provides significance of letter grades along with its equivalent grade points.

Table-1: Letter Grades and their significance

Grade (G)	Qualitative Meaning (GQ)	Equivalent Grade Point (g)
A+	Excellent	10
A	Creditable	9
B+	Very Good	8
B	Good	7
C+	Satisfactory	6
IF	Interim Fail	0
FF	Fail	0

10.1 CEE, LPW and SEE:

Grades for the CEE, PW and SEE examinations will be given on the basis of the percentage marks obtained by the student in the respective examinations. In the normal course, a student (IR, RPR) and category Term Granted (GT) will appear for SEE after his CEE and PW examination, in the same Semester.

Table-2 shall be referred for converting percentage marks into corresponding Grades (G) for CEE, PW and SEE/SPE.

Table-2: Conversion of Marks to Grades

% marks	Grade(G)
90 and above	A+
80-89	A
70-79	B+
60-69	B
50-59	C+
40-49	C
Less than 40	IF

10.2 Course Grade:

Course grade will be given only when the student meets with the academic standards of passing of all components of a course.

Marks of SEE/ SPE, CEE and PWE (as applicable) examinations shall first be aggregated on the basis of the component / inter se weights given in the Teaching Scheme. After the aggregate marks of the entire group are so calculated, the performance of each student in the course as a whole will be assigned a grade based on his aggregate percentage viewed in relation to the overall performance of the group.

10.2.1 Relative Grading:

In giving relative grades, the number and designation of various grades (G) shall be kept the same as shown in Table 3. The cut off percentages of relative grading will be decided subject to the guidelines prescribed by the Academic Council.

The Transcript will show only the Course Grade and not the Component Grades.

10.2.2 Absolute Grading:

Absolute grading is followed for grading of all courses that do not have Semester End Examinations, Credit based Internships, Enrichment Courses, Field Courses and for all examinations of IR/RPR category. However, the Institute uses absolute grading system in case the grading is performed for 30 or less than 30 students. The following Table-3 provides the conversion of marks in letter grades.

Table-3: Conversion of Marks into Grades in a Course

% marks	Grade (G)
90 and above	A+
80-89	A
70-79	B+
60-69	B
50-59	C+
Below 50	IF

R.LAW (UG) 11: INTERPRETATION OF GRADES

11.1 Minimum Passing Requirement:

Grade C+ is the minimum for overall passing a course. Grade C is the minimum for passing a component of a course.

11.2 Grade FF:

If this grade is given because of NT (R.LAW (UG)-7), the student will have to seek RS registration respectively for repeat study of the course.

11.3 Grade IF:

This is an interim fail grade given in CE, SEE and overall fail in a course, as under:

Performance	Grade
Fail in CEE	IF(C)
Fail in TEE	IF(T)
Overall Fail in a course	IF(O)

The student who obtains grade IF in SPE will be allowed to appear in Three consecutively available subsequent SEE/ SPE of the concerned course. The criteria for giving grades in these three attempts will be the same as given in R.LAW (UG)-10. However, grade IF in the final attempt will be converted into grade FF.

R.LAW (UG) 12: PASSING STANDARDS

12.1 PASSING A COMPONENT

The standards of passing a component/ course/ programme are given below:

- COMPONENT - Min C in each component examinations i.e., CE, PWand SEE/SPE
- COURSE - Min C+ Grade
- PROGRAM -Min C+ Grade in each credit course with prescribed credits of the program and Min CGPA 6.0
- The student who has once passed a course will not be allowed permitted to reappear in any examination of that course.

Notwithstanding anything contained above, so far as the University Elective courses are concerned the minimum course grade for passing will be "C" instead of "C+" and here the grade "C" stands for "Average".

12.2 FAILURE

Student not satisfying the criteria of Passing will be considered as having failed in the examination/ component/ course/ programme.

Notwithstanding anything contained above, the students who has got "C" in Continuous Evaluation (CE), will be allowed to reappear in CE (at his/her option) if he/she fails in a course. In case, if the students opts for reappearing in CE, then he/she will also have to reappear in SEE.

RLAW (UG) 13: PERFORMANCE LEVELS

The performance level of the student in credit courses at different stages of his study is measured by the following performance levels. All performance level values will be rounded off to the second place of decimal.

13.1 GPAC - Grade Point Average for a Course:

Equivalent Grade Point Average (g) corresponding to the course grade RLAW (UG)-10.

13.2 SGPA - Semester Grade Point Average:

The SGPA shall be computed by multiplying the earned course grade points by the corresponding course credit and the resultant value shall be divided by the total credit of the Semester.

13.3 PGPA - Progressive Grade Point Average:

Similarly, PGPA of a semesters at any stage of study shall be computed by multiplying the grade points of the earned courses till that point of time by the corresponding course credits and the resultant value shall be divided by the total credits of the earned courses.

13.4 CGPA - Cumulative Grade Point Average:

CGPA refers to the entire programme. It is calculated when the student passes all the credit courses of the programme.

The method of calculation is the same as for PGPA.

13.5 Class and Percentage (%) Marks:

In case, there is equivalence between CGPA values and Class / % marks is desired, the same can be obtained as given below: % marks = (CGPA – 0.50)* 10

GPA Value	Percentage	Equivalent Class
6.00 to 6.49	55% to 59%	Second
6.50 to 7.49	60% to 69%	First
