ILNU has always been making endeavours to ensure that the students coming out of the portals of our law school are equipped with the necessary skills to meet the challenges of the emerging scenario. Keeping in mind the rapidly evolving world around us, we have made sure to design and deliver quality programmes that would enhance subject areas, provide profession specific expertise, and encourage the personality development of an evolving legal professional.

The CRC (Campus Recruitment Cell) draws its strength and enthusiasm to work from the trust placed by the students in it. The CRC acts as a facilitator and medium between the prospective recruiters and the students. The students and faculty members along with Managers-Corporate Relations are actively involved in the placement process. The Committee ensures a transparent, trustworthy and accountable liaison between the prospective recruiters and the students. The Committee understands the needs of the students as well as the market and is determined to cater to the best to both.

Internships

Institute of Law has designed nine internship programme for the students pursuing B.A., LL.B. (Hons) and B.Com., LL.B. (Hons) Degree Programmes. The training of the students is designed in different phases. Our endeavor for this internship is to make students to know ground realities of our society and understand how law applies.

Internship is a very important learning process for law students.

Exposure - to practical aspect of law

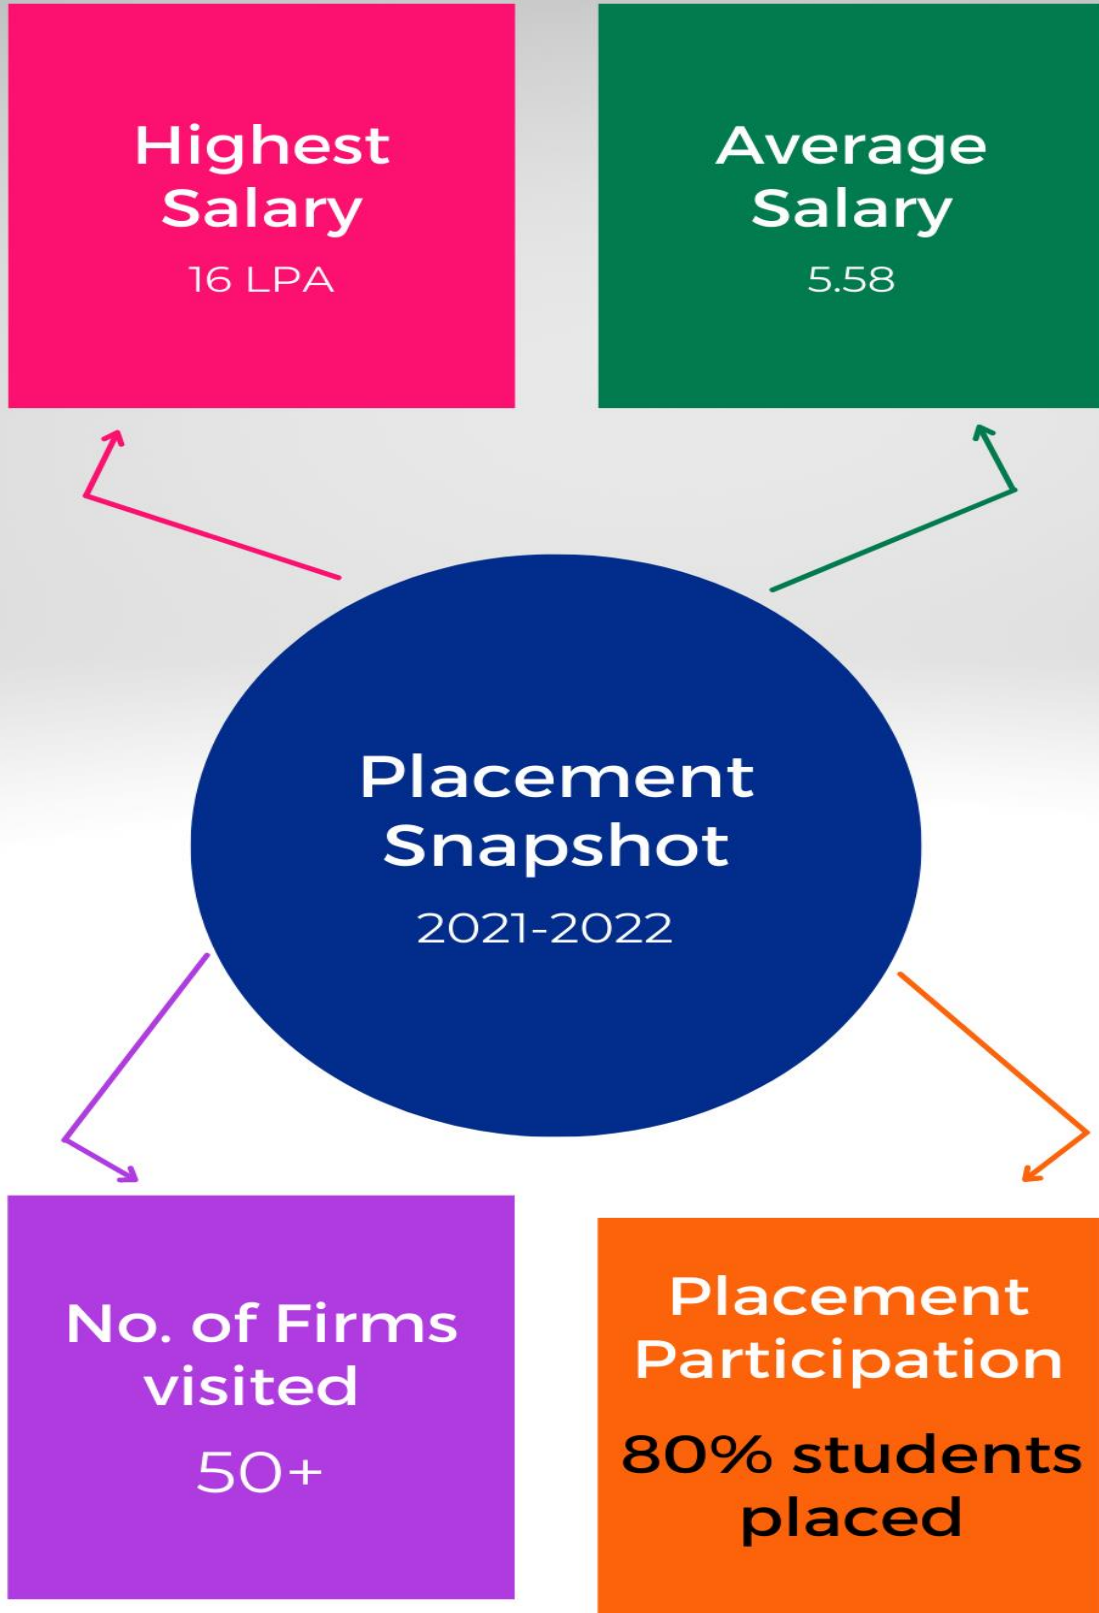

Application - of law in various situations and correlating it with theories taught in class

Informed Decision - without practical exposure to various institutions, it is not possible for the students to take an informed decision regarding their career goals

Skill Development - hands on experience at the field and developing skills that are required to be market ready
