SUBMISSION CATEGORIES

J IPL welcomes original and previously unpublished works in the following category for publication in its VIII & IX volume.

- Articles: Submissions should provide a comprehensive coverage of the available literature on the concerned topic and a novel perspective on the related issue with suggestions. (Word limit- 3000-6000 including footnotes)
- Essay: Essay should cover a recent development or should be issue specific. An essay functions as a more condensed and succinct Article. (Word limit- 2000-3000 including footnotes)
- Case notes/Case comments: Case comments should entail a critical analysis of recent case laws and policy developments. (Word limit- 2000-2500 words including footnotes)
- Book reviews: We also welcome reviews of books that have made a significant contribution to legal or academic scholarship in the field of Intellectual Property Rights. Successful submissions to this category will engage substantively with the ideas and themes explored in the book instead of merely providing a summary of its main arguments. (Word limit- 2000-2500 words including footnotes)
