

Course Work Requirement for Ph.D. Programme in Management (Full-Time)

Pre-Registration Course work

In the first year, candidates would be required to undergo one-year pre-requisite course work equal to 32 Credit Hours before formal registration to the PhD Programme.

Advanced Course work

In the second year, as part of the advanced course work, the candidates would be required to study five PhD courses equivalent to 16 Credit Hours. Two common courses viz. Research Methodology (4 credits) and Research and Publication Ethics (2 credits) are required to be completed by all PhD students. Remaining three advanced courses pertain to the functional area chosen and the theme in which the candidate wants to pursue his/ her research.

From third year onwards, the students will be working on their research topic under the guidance of their respective Supervisors, focusing on developing their research proposals, conducting in-depth literature reviews, designing methodologies, collecting and analyzing data, and preparing their findings for publication or presentation in academic forums.

Passing Standards

A PhD scholar has to obtain a minimum of C+ grade in each course and minimum CPI 6.00 in pre-requisite course work and advanced course work in order to be eligible to continue in the Programme.
