- (H) Refine your search upfront and filter by content type, jurisdiction or legal topic. Click Favourites to re-use recent publications, filters or topics. You can also filter your search results from the results page.

Filter: Refine Your Search and Save Browsing Time

The screenshot displays the Lexis Advance India Research interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with 'Lexis Advance India Research', 'Browse', 'Client: None', 'History', 'Help', and 'More'. Below this is the main header 'Lexis Advance India' with a search bar containing 'Enter terms, publications, or a citation' and a search button. A search filter dropdown is set to 'Search: Everything'. On the left, a 'Narrow By:' sidebar contains several filter categories: 'Jurisdiction', 'Content Type', 'Legal Topics', and 'Recent & Favourites'. The 'Jurisdiction' section is expanded, showing a list of Indian states and union territories with checkboxes. A 'Search' button is located at the bottom of the filter box. On the right, there is a 'Non Jurisdictional' section with an 'Include non-jurisdictional content' checkbox. A 'Clear' button and a star icon are also visible in the top right of the filter box.

You can filter your search results to limit the number of documents that appear. You can also save time by filtering before you search by choosing jurisdictions, content types and or legal topics. Add favorite publications, combinations of publications recently used filter combinations or frequently used legal topics to you research. Finally, you can get assistance developing terms and connectors through search tips.

- (A) Click the Search Everything pull- down menu to add filters. As you add, the Search Everything box will display the filters you've selected.
- (B) As you add filters across screens, the NarrowBy box displays your filter choices. Click the X to delete a choice or Clear to remove all choices.
- (C) Finished selecting filters? You can save the combination as a favourite and re-use. Click the star to add it to your Favourites list.
- (D) Navigate filter choices. Just select a Filter link.
- (E) Content Type options include all content types available, eg, select t.o. Also choose which content category to display first.
- (F) Legal Topics options include 17 top level legal topics.
- (G) Recent & Favourites options include up to 50 recent and favourite publications / combinations of publications, recent and favourite filter combinations, and recent and favourite legal topics selected from Browse Topics.
- (H) Advanced Search helps you select search commands, wild cards, and terms and connectors. Also link to citation formats for retrieving the judgment and Case citator document for a case citation.
- (I) Click Search to close the Filter box when you've finished selecting filters.

Browse Publications: Find Specific Publications to Search and Browse

You don't need to select publications before you search Lexis Advance. However, if you want to search specific publications, you can find them in two ways.

- If you know the publication name or partial name, enter it in the red search box.
 - Select a publication title to add it to your search.
 - Select a source's Table of Contents (TOC) link to browse the TOC all the way through to document level; search the full TOC or select specific parts of the TOC to search and/or deliver.
- You can also search or browse the publication listing in the following ways:

Cases: Get more than Full Text

The screenshot displays the LexisAdvance India Research interface for a case titled "I. C. GOLAKNATH & ORS. Vs. STATE OF PUNJAB & ANRS.(With Connected Petitions) LNIND 1967 SC 49". The interface includes a navigation bar at the top with search and document controls. Below the navigation bar, there are icons for document actions (A) and a "Goto" section with search terms (B). The main content area shows the case title and citation (C), a "Copy Citation" button (D), and a context menu for highlighting text (F). The right sidebar contains "About This Document" information, including publication details and a "Download Document" button (E). The case text includes the name of the court, the date, and the headnotes.

When you view a full-text case, you also have quick access to Case Citor.

- (A) Save the document to a folder, print, deliver or share. Also request a printer-friendly version.
- (B) Jump to specific document parts, eg, headnotes, holdings of court, judgments. Move among search terms or reporter pages.
- (C) Move among results documents. Click Next Document or Previous Document. Click Results List to move to your results set.
- (D) Copy the full-case citation for your work. Include parallel citations and a link to the full-text case.
- (E) Open the court-ready PDF and other available case documents.
- (F) Highlight—and use—vital text. When you highlight text, an options box displays. You can copy the text and paste it to your work, annotate and/or save the text to a folder, search with the selected text, or highlight important passages. Then save the marked-up document to a folder.

Deliver: Print, Download and Email

Use the same, easy-to-remember delivery icons in the same screen locations across Lexis Advance. Look for these icons at the top of your results lists, TOC (Table of Contents) pages and full-text documents. (Actual configuration may vary slightly to fit the task. For example, full-text documents won't include the red number or Select All boxes.)

Delivery is simple and flexible with Lexis Advance because you can deliver one or more documents at once.

To deliver: Select All

One document: As you view the full text, select a delivery icon. Choose delivery options.

Multiple documents: Select the check box(es) next to the document(s) in a results list, even moving among content types. Select multiple documents from a TOC display.

The red box with the delivery icons keeps count for you. Then select a delivery icon and choose delivery options. No need to open documents to deliver.

Lengthy documents fast. Delivery icons “float” and stay on screen as you scroll lengthy, full-text documents such as cases or legislations. Deliver quickly, without scrolling back to the top of the screen.

More than documents. Print your results list and lists of your Folder documents or Alert searches. Even deliver your Research History Map. You can also use the Printer-Friendly View icon, shown above, and your own device print functions to print.

Plus choose from many delivery options from the drop-down menu-and save a step later.

After you select a delivery icon, you choose delivery options. Or save a step and by pass options by selecting your default options. If you select Choose Settings, an option menu displays offering basic, formatting and content-specific options:

 Print Options

Basic: Select a printer attached to your device. (Install the print/download utility software on initial selection.) You can also include your formatting choices on your cover page.

Formatting: Select fonts, search terms in bold, exclude cover page and other options. Even view highlights and annotations you add to the document.

Content-specific: For example, hide or include Case citator tables and signals.

 Download Options

Basic: Send as PDF, Docx or WordPerfect® (.WP). You can group and/or compress files. Select filename and destination.

Formatting: Select fonts, search terms in bold, create a cover page and other options. Even include highlights and annotations you add to the document.

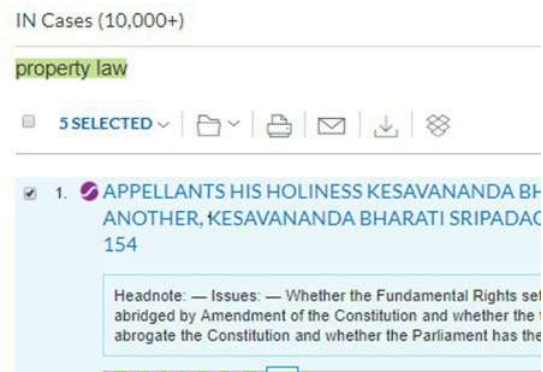

Content-specific: For example, hide or include Case Citator tables and signals.

 Email Options

Basic: Send as PDF, Docx, or WP and/or compress files. Add recipient addresses, subject and message.

Formatting: Select fonts, search terms in bold, etc, plus cover page and other options. Even include highlights and annotations you add to the document.

Content-specific: For example, hide or include Case Citator tables and signals.

Get Updates Automatically: Create an Alert

To setup an Alert, look for the Alert “alarm clock” icon. You’ll find it at the top of most screens when you’re conducting tasks that may require updates. For example, it’s located conveniently at the top of your Search results screen.

Select the Alert icon and then choose your update options

Move through the options screens in seconds, selecting just what you need.

- (A) Overview options: Select an Alert title, review/edit search terms, add a description and select a client matter (optional).
- (B) Monitor options: Your options mirror your search, eg, if you searched case law, legislation and web content, you can include any or all that content in one alert update.
- (C) Deliver options: Select start and end dates, online or email/online delivery, etc. Plus select the update frequency. Choose the delivery day and time. Or select as updates are available to get alerts as they are released.
- (D) Share options: Add email addresses so colleagues also receive alert updates.

View Alerts results

Email updates come to your inbox. View search terms to determine relevance. Select documents, review and use internal document links to navigate to other relevant documents.

Plus, you can view all your Alerts and check for updates from the Lexis Advance home page. Check the Alerts pod. The blue dot notifies you that update results are available for that item. To view an alert, select its link from the Alerts pod. Or select View all alerts (or Alerts from the More pull-down menu) to move to your Alerts management screen.

Manage Alerts: edit, delete, pause, etc.

On the Alerts management screen, you can:

- (A) Filter Alerts, including by search term, type, matter, delivery type and / or frequency.
- (B) Use the icons to:
- Select multiple alerts for edits - as you select, the red box counts for you
 - Start alert updates again after pausing
 - Pause the alert updates
 - Delete the alert updates
- (C) From the More drop-down option browse and delete all results quickly. Or keep the results and mark as read.
- (D) Editor add search terms, content or change delivery frequency (available when email option selected) and other options.
- (E) Move to your search results; select the alert title link.

History: View Searches and much more in the List View

The screenshot displays the Lexis Advance India Research History page. At the top, there is a navigation bar with 'History' and 'Actions' tabs.
