Handbook on Space, Place and Law

Author: Robyn Bartel

Publisher: Edward Elgar, 2021

ISBN: 978 1 78897 719 7

This innovative Handbook provides an expansive interrogation of the spaces and places of law, exploring how we engage relationally in a material world, within which we are inter-dependent and reliant, and governed by laws in a dynamic process. It advances novel insights into the numerous intersections of space, place and law in our lives. More Details...

Ancient Indigenous Human Remains and the Law

Author: Fiona Batt

Publisher: Routledge, 2021

ISBN: 9780367897147

Indigenous peoples are increasingly making requests for the return of their ancestors' human remains and ancient indigenous deoxyribonucleic acid. However, some museums and scientists have refused to repatriate indigenous human remains or have initiated protracted delays. There are successful examples of the return of ancient indigenous human remains however the focus of this book is an examination of the "hard" cases. The continued retention perpetuates cultural harm and is a continuing violation of the rights of indigenous peoples. Therefore this book develops a litigation Toolkit which can be used in such disputes and includes legal and quasi legal instruments from the following frameworks, cultural property, cultural heritage, cultural rights, collective heritage, intellectual property, Traditional Knowledge and human rights. God, Grades, and Graduation: Religion's Surprising Impact on Academic Success

Author: Ilana M. Horwitz

Publisher: OUP, 2021

ISBN: 9780197534144

It's widely acknowledged that American parents from different class backgrounds take different approaches to raising their children. Upper and middle-class parents invest considerable time facilitating their children's activities, while working class and poor families take a more hands-off approach. These different strategies influence how children approach school. But missing from the discussion is the fact that millions of parents on both sides of the class divide are raising their children to listen to God. What impact does a religious upbringing have on their academic trajectories? More Details...

Disability in International Human Rights Law

Author: Gauthier de Beco

ISBN: 9780198824503

This book examines what international human rights law has gained from the new elements in the UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (CRPD). It explores how the CRPD is intricately bound up with other international instruments by studying the relationship between the Convention rights and those protected by other human rights treaties, as well as the overall objectives of the UN. Using a social model lens on disability, the book shows how the Convention sheds new light on the very notion of human rights.

The Dream of Revolution: A Biography of Jayaprakash Narayan

Author: Dr Bimal Prasad

Publisher: Vintage Books, 2021

ISBN: 978-0670096176

Few figures in modern India have enjoyed such acclaim and adoration as Jayaprakash Narayan. And yet, he has been equally vilified for all that went wrong in the unfinished post-colonial movement for freedom and democracy. Jayaprakash Narayan, or JP as he was universally known, epitomized the Marxian and Gandhian styles of political engagement, and famously brought a powerful government to its knees. Throughout his life, he channelled an emotional hunger for transformative politics, jettisoned easy options, shunned power and incubated revolutionary ideas. More Details...

Histories of Transnational Criminal Law

Author: Neil Boister

Publisher: OUP, 2021

ISBN: 9780192845702

This edited collection provides an in-depth account of the history of key developments in transnational criminal law. While the history of international criminal law is now a much written about topic, the origins of most modern transnational criminal laws are not well understood. Histories of Transnational Criminal Law provides for the first time a set of legal histories of state efforts to combat and cooperate against transnational crime. With contributions from a group of word-leading experts, this edited volume traverses a range of topics, beginning with the normative, intellectual, and institutional histories of transnational criminal law. It then moves to the histories of specific transnational crimes ranging across eras from piracy to cybercrime, and finishes by examining jurisdiction, modes of liability, different forms of procedural cooperation, and the predicament of the individual in transnational criminal law. The book highlights specific issues and how they have been resolved, in the loose assemblage of norms, institutions, and practices that constitutes transnational criminal law. More Details...

Economic Analysis in EU Competition Policy

Author: Pier Luigi Parcu

Publisher: Edward Elgar, 2021

ISBN: 978 1 80037 018 0

This insightful book assesses emerging trends in the role of economic analysis in EU competition policy, exploring how it has substantially increased in terms of both theories and methods. Expert contributors examine the jurisprudence of the EU Court of Justice, which has become more supportive of effect-based analysis in EU competition policy. Chapters consider key topics including the role of economic analysis in relation to defining the relevant market, the challenges of competition policy enforcement in the telecom and digital markets, and economic methods to estimate damages in cases of private enforcement of EU competition law. The book also discusses the challenges faced by judges in reviewing the economic evidence relied on by competition agencies in their decisions and how these may be overcome. More Details...

Collaboration and Innovation in Criminal Justice: An Activity Theory Alternative to Offender Rehabilitation

Author: Paulo Rocha

Publisher: Routledge, 2021

ISBN 9781032033365

Drawing on original research on community-based alternatives to offender rehabilitation, this book provides an up-to-date depiction of the challenges faced by front-line workers at the interface between criminal justice and welfare systems striving to address needs and provide multifaceted solutions. Using an innovative theoretical approach predicated on activity theory (AT) to dissect the problem, the book makes the case for co-created rehabilitation strategies that address the needs of offenders – which can only be achieved with the involvement of health and social welfare services as a means to provide a holistic support to individuals – and regard for the dilemmas front-line professionals face to deploy such strategies – which means shifting the top-down paradigm of policy implementation for co-created solutions. The book explores how AT can be used to help design commensurate interventions that give voice to all the interested actors involved in the rehabilitation process and provide readers with tools that help translate theory into practice. The Constitution of Knowledge: A Defense of Truth

Author: Jonathan Rauch

Publisher: Brookings Institution, 2021

ISBN: 978-0815738862

Arming Americans to defend the truth from today's war on facts. Disinformation. Trolling. Conspiracies. Social media pile-ons. Campus intolerance. On the surface, these recent additions to our daily vocabulary appear to have little in common. But together, they are driving an epistemic crisis: a multi-front challenge to America's ability to distinguish fact from fiction and elevate truth above falsehood. In 2016 Russian trolls and bots nearly drowned the truth in a flood of fake news and conspiracy theories, and Donald Trump and his troll armies continued to do the same. Social media companies struggled to keep up with a flood of falsehoods, and too often didn't even seem to try. Experts and some public officials began wondering if society was losing its grip on truth itself. Meanwhile, another new phenomenon appeared: cancel culture. More Details...

Restructuring Indian Judiciary - A Comparative Study

Author: Dharmadhikari and Siddharth Sharma

Publisher: Thomson Reuters, 2021

ISBN: 978-9389891560

The modified traditional British judicial system being followed in India has not been able to dispense justice to the people of the nation despite the ever-expanding jurisdiction of its constitutional and subordinate courts. Justice D.M. Dharmadhikari and Siddharth Sharma, having surveyed judicial systems functioning satisfactorily in other democratic countries of the world, particularly USA and UK, and in European countries working on common law, which have modernised their systems with scientific techniques to meet the demands of justice, advocate in Restructuring Indian Judiciary a reorganisation of the entire judicial system of India from its foundation for better administration of justice both qualitatively and quantitatively.
