

NIRMA UNIVERSITY

|                              |                                            |
|------------------------------|--------------------------------------------|
| Institute:            | Institute of Technology             |
| Name of Programme:    | B. Tech. (All Programmes)           |
| Course Code:          | 1MU803CC22                          |
| Course Title:         | Indian Constitution and Citizenship |
| Course Type:          | Common Course                       |
| Year of introduction: | 2022-2023                           |

| L | T | Practical Component |           |          |          | C |
|----------|----------|----------------------------|-----------|----------|----------|----------|
|          |          | LPW                 | PW | W | S |          |
| 2 | 1 | 0                   | 0  | 0 |          | 3 |

Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs):

At the end of the course, students will be able to –

1. explain various facets of indian constitution and its impact on political, economic and social lives of citizenry. (BL2)
2. develop responsible and active citizens. (BL3)
3. interpret social and political context of the making of the indian constitution. (BL5)
4. evaluate political institutions in constitutional framework. (BL5)

| Unit     | Contents                                                                   | Teaching Hours(Total 30) |
|-----------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------|
| Unit I   | Constituent Assemble and Constitution                                      | 06                            |
|                 | 1.1 The Philosophy of the Constitution: Liberty, Equality, Fraternity and Justice |                                      |
|                 | 1.2 Fundamental Rights and Directive Principles of State Policy                   |                                      |
|                 | 1.3 Fundamental Duties                                                            |                                      |
| Unit II  | Democracy                                                                  | 06                            |
|                 | 2.1 Meaning and Practice : Procedural and Substantive Democracy                   |                                      |
|                 | 2.2 Democracy and Civil Society                                                   |                                      |
|                 | 2.3 Democracy and Development                                                     |                                      |
| Unit III | State                                                                      | 03                            |
|                 | 3.1 State and Constitutionalism                                                   |                                      |
|                 | 3.2 Rule of law                                                                   |                                      |
| Unit IV  | Federalism                                                                 | 03                            |
|                 | 4.1 Centre – State Relations                                                      |                                      |
|                 | 4.2 Panchayati Raj                                                                |                                      |
|                 | 4.3 Municipalities                                                                |                                      |
| Unit V   | Election Commission, Voting and Citizenship                                | 07                            |
|                 | 5.1 Election Commission of India: Power and Functions                             |                                      |
|                 | 5.2 Various Determinants of Voting Behavior                                       |                                      |
|                 | 5.3 Citizenship and Democracy                                                     |                                      |
|                 | 5.4 Party System in India                                                         |                                      |
| Unit VI  | Citizenship                                                                | 05                            |
|                 | 6.1 Citizenship: Classical and Modern                                             |                                      |
|                 | 6.2 Citizenship and Multiculturalism                                              |                                      |
|                 | 6.3 Citizenship beyond the Nation – State : Globalization and Global Justice      |                                      |

Suggested Readings/ References:

Mankiw, N. G., Principles of Economics.
South-Western Cengage Learning.
Samuelson P. A. & Nordhaus, W. D., Economics.
India: Tata McGraw Hill Education.
Pindyck R. S., Rubinfeld D. L. & Mehta P. L.,
Microeconomics. New Delhi, India: Pearson.
Ahuja H.L., Modern Economics. New Delhi, India:
S. Chand & Company Ltd.
Dornbusch, R., Fisher, S. & Startz, R., Macro
Economics. India: Tata McGraw Hill Education.
Gupta, G. S., Macroeconomics Theory and
Applications. India: Tata McGraw Hill.

^ this is not an exhaustive list